

Larry V. Baker
Safety Manager
FORSCOM Ammunition, Explosives, Ranges

Mr. Larry V. Baker became the FORSCOM Ammunition, Explosives, Ranges Safety Manager in December 2004. He came to FORSCOM in 2001 as the FORSCOM CASAS, and also served as FORSCOM G4 Ammunition Manager. Previous assignments as a QASAS were at National Training Center and Fort Irwin, Army Corps of Engineers, formally used defense sites (FUDS) St. Louis, and Korea. He also had several assignments in Army Special Weapons Program, and participated in Operation Desert Shield, Desert Storm, and Desert Clean Up. Mr. Baker enlisted as a Rifleman in the United States Army in 1968. He served in Vietnam 1968-69 and was awarded the Bronze Star with "V" and oak leaf cluster. Mr. Baker graduated from the University of Illinois with a degree in History. He has a Master of Arts in History from the University of Chicago.