Sky Watcher Tours

An evening spent with Sky Watcher is pure magic as participants explore the fantastic legends and romantic heroes that surround the heavenly bodies. Unlike other astronomical guides, Sky Watcher combines fact and mythology with a fresh, fun perspective using high-powered computerized telescopes, computer kiosks and sky binoculars to crystallize and lend meaning to these wonderful night-time images above us. Sky Watcher, 44-489 Town Center Way, Suite D-200, Palm Desert, CA 92260, 760.345.2363, www.sky-watcher.com.

Palm Springs Air Museum

Visit one of the largest collections of flying WWII aircrafts. The Palm Springs Air Museum's mission is to exhibit, educate, and eternalize the role of the World War II combat aircraft and the roles of pilots and American citizens. 745 North Gene Autry Trail, Palm Springs, CA 92262, 760.778.6262 ext 222, www.palmspringsairmuseum.org.

Children's Discovery Museum

Bring your children to a hands-on museum where they are free to create and explore. The museum caters to children of all ages, focusing on primary school age children. The museum helps promote intellectual curiosity and self expression through the exhibits and programs. 71-701 Gerald Ford Drive, Rancho Mirage, CA 92270, 760.321.0602, www.cdmod.org.

Horseback Riding

Horseback ride in beautiful Palm Springs. Explore Indian Canyons that offer year-round streams and a palm oasis at the Smoke Tree Stables just 20 minutes from Palm Springs. Horseback ride through the scenic foothills of Morongo Valley with breathtaking views of the San Gorgonio Mountains and Mt. San Jacinto at the Coyote Ridge Stable. Or visit the family owned Crazy Horse Ranch located just outside of Palm Springs that offers trail rides, private lessons and horse boarding. Owner Jacklyn Barrett, a Wyoming native, will teach you the ropes to ensure your ride is an unforgettable experience.
